What's my story?

I'm an Accredited Business Lender with 11 years of experience in commercial banking and a deep knowledge of business financing needs. My passion is helping clients make smart business decisions that enable them to reach their most important goals.

I ask probing questions to find out what a member wants to achieve before identifying solutions that meet those priorities. I always put the member first — for example, by making myself available and hunting down answers as quickly as possible. I draw on my networking, teamwork, and communication skills to help members reach their financial objectives.

I find value in my everyday work through making connections and building strong long-lasting relationships with all types of business owners.

Call or email and let's chat about how I can help you achieve your business goals.
