What's my story?

I've been with Prospera for 10 years, and I have a strong admiration and respect for people who start their own businesses. I genuinely enjoy helping them meet their goals.

Because every entrepreneur has different objectives, timeframes, and unknowns, I listen closely to members to better understand their unique needs. That puts me in the best position to provide advice on everything from lending to business growth.

I find value in my everyday work through learning about different industries, bouncing ideas off my fantastic colleagues, and building relationships that ultimately help members accomplish what they want in their businesses and in their personal lives.

Call or email and let's chat about how I can help you achieve your business goals.
