We're experts when it comes to getting your project financed efficiently.

Meet Nathan Chong

Senior Business Relationship Manager, Real Estate

With over 15 years of experience in banking, specializing in commercial real estate and construction, Nathan is highly knowledgeable when it comes to finance. Growing up in Vancouver, he has a deeply rooted understanding of the local economy and a passion for supporting local businesses. He's dedicated to supporting members and assisting them in reaching their goals, while ensuring he has a thorough understanding of their needs. Balancing both risk management and business development, Nathan enjoys seeing members succeed and working collaboratively with them. Outside of his professional life, Nathan enjoys traveling and speaks both Mandarin and Cantonese.

We'll guide and support you every step of the way and can assist with:

- Business plan reviews
- Account monitoring
- Strategic financing
- Support across business lines
- Partnerships with other advisors
