Peter has focused on equipment lending for over two decades, spending the majority of that time with Prospera. As a knowledgeable professional he understands the ins and outs of equipment leasing, listening closely to member needs before working to create a customized solution for their unique situation. Peter's passionate about enabling members with leases that provide benefits like lower down payments, payments that better match the economic life of the asset, taxes paid over time rather than upfront and ownership at the end of the lease.

Taking satisfaction from helping entrepreneurs grow their businesses, Peter finds value in his work through establishing and maintaining trusting long-term relationships with business owners – relationships that very often turn into friendships.
